Overview

Lying along the east side of the Continental Divide and south of Banff National Park is the stunningly pristine natural area of the Canadian Rockies—Kananaskis Country. Here you leave the crowds to be immersed in the scenic landscape of alpine meadows spilling down from the craggy, snowcapped peaks of the Rocky Mountains. Following quiet trails in Yoho National Park, you are met by countryside bejeweled with crystal icy rivers, fresh alpine air, and meadows teeming with brilliant wildflowers. In the evenings, you celebrate your discoveries in top-notch Rocky Mountain style and comfort—the first two nights are spent at a lakeside lodge where individual hand-hewn log accommodations boast fireplaces, trend-setting cuisine, and an ambiance befitting the scenic drama of this region. The final inn for three nights is a cozy, Swiss-style backcountry lodge where you unwind in front of a warm fire and indulge in afternoon tea.

Daily Itinerary

DAY 1

Bow Lake; 6 miles, easy to moderate

After your orientation in Canmore, you transfer further into Western Alberta and to your introductory walk of the week. Located a short distance from the Icefields Parkway, Bow Lake is the third-largest lake in Banff National Park. It is also the headwater of the Bow River. The lake is fed by the meltwater from Bow Glacier, one of six outlet valley glaciers of the Wapta Icefield. Today's walk follows the lakeshore, eventually reaching an overlook of Bow Glacier. Pioneer outfitter and guide Jimmy Simpson spent the winters of the early 1900s hunting and trapping in the remote country north of Bow Lake.

At the conclusion of today's walk, you are welcomed at your lodge in Field, British Columbia and enjoy a welcome dinner in the lodge's restaurant, where an exquisite meal of local mountain specialties awaits.

Please note: Each day presents the possibility that alternative trails of comparable terrain will be used in the event of trail closing due to wildlife activity.*

Emerald Lake Lodge, Field, BC

This beautifully restored lodge set on the shores of stunning Emerald Lake offers exceptional service, individual townhouse-style units, and an outdoor hot tub. Please note that lake views are not guaranteed.

DAY 2

Takakkaw Falls to Iceline Trail to Yoho Lake; 6 miles, moderate to challenging, 1,400-ft. elevation gain or Takakkaw Falls to Laughing Falls; 6 miles, easy

Today's walk begins in the Yoho Valley at Takakkaw Falls. After a short warm-up on a flat trail, you ascend a slope past Whiskey Jack Falls, passing 300- to 400-year-old spruce trees, some of the oldest in Yoho National Park. Eventually you reach the Iceline Trail, having enjoyed the last mile of panoramic views of the Yoho Valley and Dally Glacier. Turning on to the Highline Trail you follow it to your next destination of Yoho Lake. The first white explorer to reach the lake was Ralph Edwards in 1897, when he wrote that the lake was, "...a marvelously beautiful lake, not much larger than a little pond, but of an exquisite ultramarine colour."

After enjoying lunch at this quiet spot, you continue on the trail around the edge of the lake, winding through a colorful wetland of wildflowers that offers brief glimpses of Yoho Valley. The trail starts to descend, bringing you back around to Whiskey Jack Falls before looping back to your starting point at Takakkaw Falls. With luck you may spot moose, hoary marmots, or pika, or be visited by a whiskey jack, the small, sociable bird that gave its name to the falls. Common vegetation includes bunchberry, Indian paintbrush, queens cup, and foamflower.

Today's other option leaves Takakkaw Falls heading along the valley floor. The trail meanders through a forest with the west bank of the Yoho River grazing the trail. The soft-green verdant forest floor offers plants and mushrooms not seen elsewhere in the area, plus viewing spots of the wild rapids of the Yoho River. Laughing Falls offers a picnic spot, with the cataracts and sparkling stream presenting an enriching vista. After lunch you head back down the trail, taking a slight detour to visit Point Lace Falls. As the name suggests, this delicately patterned waterfall is in direct contrast to Takakkaw Falls.

Regardless of the option, you have the chance to walk up the short half-mile interpretive trail to view the base of Takakkaw Falls. Here you experience the thunderous roar and enjoy the rainbow-infused spray of glacial water descending from this 836-foot-high waterfall before returning to your lodge for dinner on your own this evening.

Emerald Lake Lodge, Field, BC

DAY 3

Consolation Lakes; 4-5 miles, easy

Today's stunning walk offers views of glacier clad mountains and montane lakes surrounded by wildflowers and plenty of wildlife. You stop to view the emerald-colored Moraine Lake before heading across the base of the Tower of Babel and continuing into the cool spruce and subalpine fir forest. You follow the waters of Babel Creek, and just before Lower Consolation Lake the trail opens out into a lush meadow vibrant with wildflowers and a spectacular view of Hydra Glacier at the end of the valley.

Later, you are welcomed at your backcountry accommodation where you savor the Rocky Mountain tranquility and view the alpenglow on the peaks looming through the trees. Tonight you dine on regional favorites served at the lodge.

Mount Engadine Lodge, Canmore, AB

An intimate backcountry mountain lodge set in a beautiful alpine meadow at 6,200 feet in the heart of Kananaskis Country, complete with outdoor sauna and wrap-around deck overlooking the stunning Moose Meadow. The Mount Engadine Lodge is the proud recipient of the coveted ALTO award through Travel Alberta for the category of Sustainable Tourism.

DAY 4

Rummel Lake Trail; 6-7 miles, moderate to challenging, 1,300-ft elevation gain

Today you walk directly out the door of your lodge crossing the Spray Lakes Road before heading into the subalpine forest to walk along the bubbling Rummel Creek.

Following the creek a short distance you turn upwards towards a point that offers a panoramic view of the magnificent peaks surrounding this alpine valley. Continuing through forest on a ridgeline takes you across Rummel Creek once again for the final section of your walk which eventually rewards you with the serene vista of Rummel Lake surrounded by dramatic peaks and alpine wildflowers. Time permitting, you have the option of progressing a little further to another vantage point to view another beautiful flower-clad meadow or you may prefer to cool your feet in the glacier fed lake before returning to your hospitable lodge with time to relax and enjoy the view. Your efforts today are rewarded with a true feast of local specialties this evening.

Mount Engadine Lodge, Canmore, AB

Chester Lake Trail, 5-6 miles, moderate, 1,000-ft. elevation gain

After a bountiful breakfast, a short drive brings you to the start of the Chester Lake Trail, leading to a beautiful subalpine lake located at an elevation of 7,280 feet. Beginning along a quiet, narrow trail scented with heather and berry bushes, a series of elevation gains are interspersed with flat areas through alpine meadows filled with elephant head, fleabane, and colorful Indian paintbrush. This amazing array of summer alpine flowers transitions to autumn colors, as the larch trees change from green to gold into September. Lake Chester, its surface often punctuated by leaping trout, is encircled by an amphitheater of rock and awe-inspiring peaks—the Fortress, Gusty Peak, Mount Galatea, and Mount Chester. In fact, these mountains are known locally as the Battleship Range because they have been named after either famous battleships or people who were involved in World War I. The region is renowned for grizzly bears, which love to feed on the many glacier lilies; your guides are alert to the signs, however, and keep you close and safe.

A final evening feast is served where you raise your glass and toast the Canadian wilderness and recount the adventures you've shared.

Mount Engadine Lodge, Canmore, AB

Ptarmigan Cirque; 3 miles, moderate, 760-ft. elevation gain. Departure from Canmore

This morning you embark on a stunning drive along the Smith Dorrien Spray Trail, a scenic gravel road, where elk and bighorn sheep often graze along the roadside. The journey takes you to Elbow Sheep Wildland, the south end of Kananaskis Country and the start of the Ptarmigan Cirque, a high mountain bowl between Mount Arethusa and Mount Rae.

You begin climbing up the Highwood pass through a forest of alpine larch, subalpine fir, and Engelmann spruce. Along the way, the wooded path opens and levels out into a breathtaking circular alpine meadow filled with wildflowers, complete with a glacial stream. As you bask in the grand views of the meadow and surrounding mountain peaks, you enjoy a trailside snack by the waterfall while keeping an eye out for bighorn sheep.

After a final lunch together, you return to downtown Canmore where you bid farewell to your newfound friends before departing for your onward travels.

ITINERARY CHANGES

Please bear in mind that this is a typical itinerary, and the actual activities, sites, and accommodations may vary due to season, special events, weather, animal activity, or transportation schedules. We reserve the right to alter the itinerary since tour arrangements are made up to a year in advance, and unforeseen circumstances that mandate change may arise. Itinerary changes are made to improve the tour and your experience.

HIGH-ALTITUDE WARNING

The highest elevation you will be walking at on this tour is approximately 8,600 feet. The altitude may have some effect on travelers. Typical symptoms include nausea, a loss of appetite, insomnia, shortness of breath, dizziness, headaches, or other minor irregularities. There are actions you can take to help you adjust to the altitude, including drinking lots of water (more than you feel you need) and getting plenty of sleep. Also, take your time while walking, allow your body to adjust, and always keep your guides informed of how you are feeling. Please discuss with your doctor whether taking altitude medication would be helpful.

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

Country Walkers is a leader in active travel with responsible tourism an integral part of our core values. Our tours reflect our dedication to best travel practices—and to the preservation of indigenous cultures and the environment. Country Walkers has made a donation on behalf of every traveler to the CW Travelers Fund, which supports designated projects in the communities and habitats in which we travel. We invite you to learn more about our efforts and initiatives for giving back.

Here's just one example that highlights our sustainable practices:

We proudly support the Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative. Stretching some 2,000 miles the Yellowstone to Yukon region is big, diverse and intact enough to support wildlife, nature and millions of people. To maintain this area is a global opportunity unparalleled elsewhere in the world. The Yellowstone to Yukon Conservation Initiative is the only organization dedicated long-term to securing the ecological health of this entire region. Through their big-picture perspective they highlight and focus on local issues that have continental-scale implications. Once these issues are identified, they work with key partners to stitch this landscape together. Since 1993 they have worked with over 300 partners including businesses, government, and non-profit organizations on dozens of on-the-ground initiatives. Their mission is connecting and protecting habitat from Yellowstone to Yukon so people and nature can thrive. We invite you to learn more at y2y.net.

LANGUAGE

The official languages of Canada are English and French. Outside of Québec, English is predominantly used, with French used on signs and on some menus.

While knowledge of the local language is not necessary, you may want to learn some fun and useful phrases; see bbc.co.uk/languages/french or the enclosed Reading Guide for a suggested phrase book.

ELECTRICITY

Alternating current of 120V and 60Hz is used in Canada (as in the U.S.). The majority of plugs are Type B, with two square and one round prong. For a full listing of electrical outlets worldwide, see electricaloutlet.org.

WEATHER

During the months of June through September, the weather is ideal for active vacations in the Canadian Rockies, Nova Scotia, and Québec. In general, daytime temperatures range from the 60s to low 70s, with chillier nights and mornings, perhaps even around freezing in the higher elevations of western Canada. Occasional precipitation can occur at any time throughout the chosen months.

For up-to-date forecasts, see qwikcast.com. For historical average temperatures and rainfall, see weatherbase.com.

FOOD & DRINK

Canadian food is North American in its standard repertoire, as well as in its inclusion of regional dishes and seasonal harvests. Québec combines North American dishes with traditional French cuisine; regional specialties include local meat and game, such as rabbit, seafood such as mussels, many local cheeses, and tempting French or maple syrup-based desserts. Nova Scotia offers fresh lobster, Acadian-style cod, and Scottish-influenced baked goods. In Western Canada and the Rockies, menus include hearty items such as the region's local beef steaks and game meats such as venison.

Travel Tip

For guests from outside North America bringing a hair dryer or other electrical device:

- Bringing your own hair dryer or other electrical device? You'll need a travel converter, available at most hardware, travel, or consumer electronic stores
- For laptops or an electronic device with a dual voltage switch, you'll need the adapter plug but not a converter.

Travel Tip

As hard as it is for a Vermont-based company to admit, Québec is the world's largest producer of maple syrup, supplying more than 80% of the syrup consumed worldwide, and we'll also admit it's as tasty as Vermont syrup. The Canadian classification system has three categories (1, 2, and 3) and five grades (extra light, light, medium, amber, and dark). For nutritional information, recipes, and interesting maple lore, visit ilovemaple.ca.

Packing List

PACKING TIPS

Pack light! Keep in mind there will be times you may have to carry your own luggage short distances, especially before and after your Country Walkers tour. Due to space constraints, we require you to limit your luggage to one medium piece (approximately 18x15x29 inches or 8,000 cu. in.) and one small carry-on, per person. We recommend packing any personal necessities, medications, your hotel itinerary/emergency contact information, your hiking boots (or shoes), and extra clothes in your carry-on luggage in the event that your baggage is delayed. We suggest leaving valuable jewelry at home. A copy of your passport or other important documents should be kept in a separate area of your luggage. Always be alert when carrying a purse, camera, money belt, or backpack in busy cities, airports, and train stations.

FOOTWEAR

- » Hiking boots. There are many brands to choose from. Proper fit is crucial, so try on new boots while wearing socks you plan to use on tour. Be sure to break in new footwear well before your tour begins. By the time you're ready to join your walking tour, you should be able to complete 5-10 miles of walking without discomfort. We require lightweight boots with proper ankle support and good tread to ensure stability on all types of terrain. Waterproof footwear keeps feet dry in heavy rain and water resistant footwear keeps feet dry in heavy dew. Country Walkers reserves the right to deny participation to any guest not wearing appropriate footwear.
- » River shoes or sandals (for possible river crossings)
- » Synthetic, moisture-wicking socks (cotton socks are not recommended for walking as they will quickly cause blisters)
- » Blister remedy

CLOTHING

- » Lightweight, wash-and-wear synthetic long pants
- » Long-sleeved, wash-and-wear synthetic shirt
- » T-shirts and shorts (synthetic fibers)
- » Polar fleece or light wool pullover (it will keep you warm even when wet)

- » Dinner attire: dress is smart casual

OUTERWEAR

- » Waterproof rain gear: jacket, pants, hat, or hood
- » Windbreaker with hood (your rain gear may be suitable)
- » Hat with a broad brim or visor

EQUIPMENT

- » Pack (minimum size of 25L): large enough to carry water, extra clothing, rain gear, and personal items (camera, etc.)

NOTE

Please note that the weather in the Canadian Rockies is often unpredictable and can vary from bright, warm sunshine to snow flurries or rain in the course of one day. Dressing appropriately is key to your comfort while walking! Dressing in layers that may be added or taken away, and in synthetic fiber clothing (NOT cotton) that wicks moisture and dries quickly is essential. Please do not hesitate to contact the Country Walkers office prior to your trip with any questions about your hiking attire.
