Post-Tour Day: Begin Your Post-Tour Extension: Oxford

After a relaxing breakfast, meet at 10:00 a.m. for the 30-minute drive to Oxford. Please note that hotel check-in time is at 3:00 p.m. You may leave your bags with reception while you explore the city—there's so much to see and do just steps away.

Oxford is world-renowned for its prestigious university, the oldest in the English-speaking world. The heart of the campus lies just a few blocks from your hotel. Stroll the cobbled lanes lined with noble buildings spanning more than 800 years. Climb St. Martin's Tower—also known as Carfax Tower—for panoramic views of the city's rooftops and iconic spires. Browse the vibrant stalls of the historic Covered Market, open since 1774, or follow pedestrian-friendly streets to the Bodleian Library (known locally as "the Bodley"), one of the oldest libraries in Europe and the main research library of the University of Oxford (please note it is closed on Sundays).

This evening, consider a stroll along the picturesque River Thames into central Oxford. Stop in for a pint at one of the city's classic pubs or enjoy dinner at one of its many inviting restaurants.

Country Walkers provides you with city information, including recommendations on what to see and do during your stay in Oxford.
