Pre-Tour Day: Pre-Tour Hotel Night: Bressanone/Brixen

After another included breakfast at your hotel, meet your transportation—along with your luggage—for a 10:30 a.m. departure to Bressanone, Italy. Enjoy a scenic 1.5-hour drive through the Alps as you cross into Italy.

Your destination, Bressanone (as it's known in Italian; Brixen in German), lies just 28 miles south of the Brenner Pass, where Austria and Italy meet. Nestled in the South Tyrol region—a bilingual area that belonged to Austria until 1918—Bressanone offers a captivating blend of Austrian charm and Italian flair. Locals still speak more German than Italian in this “Ancient Bishop’s City,” which sits at the confluence of two rivers and is framed by mountains that slope into vineyards and lush orchards.

Once you arrive, the rest of the day is yours to enjoy—wander cobbled streets lined with pastel-colored houses, visit historic churches, or simply relax and soak in the ambiance of this picturesque alpine town.
