DAY 1: Full day in Rome

This morning, enjoy breakfast before boarding our private coach at 8:30 a.m. You arrive at your hotel in Rome at approximately 1:00 p.m. after a short stop on the way. The hotel is centrally located near public transportation. Upon arrival at the hotel, a Country Walkers representative will answer your questions and offer optional city walks and visits that will help you make the most of the city. Country Walkers provides City Information including recommendations about what to see and do during your stay.

Spend the rest of the day exploring the “Eternal City.” You can step out of Italy while in Rome with a visit to the Vatican, an independent state. The Vatican Museums are filled with magnificent art that goes far beyond such well-known pieces as Michelangelo’s Pieta and the Sistine Chapel ceiling. You will need to buy your tickets in advance to visit the Vatican.

Tonight’s dinner is on your own with plenty of options nearby.

Accommodation: Le Meridien Visconti Rome, Rome

DAY 2: Full day in Rome

You might visit the Forum, the political and commercial center of ancient Rome. Various emperors constructed the temples, monuments, and other structures here over a period of nine centuries. Today you can still see the Curia, where the Roman Senate met.

Explore Palatine Hill, where tradition says the first settlers of Rome built their huts, and which later became the home of emperors Caligula, Nero, Tiberius, and Domitian. Tour Rome's famous Catacombs, located in tunnels carved out of rock along the Via Appia Antica, or Appian Way. Or spend an idyllic afternoon in the gardens of the Villa Borghese, one of Europe's most elegant parks. And by all means, when in Rome sip espresso, savor Italian wine, and take the time to enjoy la dolce vita. After a full day of independent exploration, retire to your hotel or savor dinner in one of Rome's many fine restaurants.
