Activity Level

This tour is one of our Self-Guided Walking Adventures, rated easy to moderate, with an average of 3 to 7 miles per day and options available. The walks have elevation gains and losses up to 1,100 feet. Walking terrain includes dirt roads, gravel paths, and packed earth trails with roots and rocks in some places, mainly in the national park. Cape Breton's scenery is wild and seemingly untouched, ranging from deep forests to dramatic Atlantic coastal rocky shores with occasional sandy beaches, tiny fishing villages to bustling small towns that have conserved Scottish or Acadian culture. Opportunities for viewing fauna and flora are ubiquitous—including whale-watching cruises out of several harbors or simply looking out to sea from a rocky promontory. Moose, bear, and bald eagles are not uncommon sights on the walks or drives.

Remember: preparation is the key to ensuring your tour readiness; the more you walk or participate in aerobic exercise prior to your trip, the more you will enjoy your experience!

DAY 1

Arrival in Baddeck. Orientation phone call at 6:00 p.m.

Your destination today is the lovely town of Baddeck. In the heart of Cape Breton Island, it is the official starting and ending point of the Cabot Trail, the coastal road around the northern tip of the island completed in 1932, and named for the English explorer John Cabot, who first sighted the island in 1497, staking England's claim in North America. Baddeck is ideally situated on the northern shore of 60-mile-long Bras d'Or Lake. Alexander Graham Bell maintained his cherished summer home here for 37 years, and the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site houses a museum commemorating his work. Upon arrival, you can explore the town and its historical properties and shops, or relax at your charming inn.

Please Note: Dinner is on your own tonight. Several recommendations will be provided in your Route Notes (mailed to you approximately 30 days prior to your tour); however, should you wish to dine at The Bite House, a highly acclaimed intimate 12-seat restaurant located just outside of town, we suggest making reservations as soon as your tour is confirmed; this restaurant is often booked up a year in advance. Please visit thebitehouse.com for more information.

Accommodation: Dunlop Inn, Baddeck

DAY 2

Inverness Beach & Boardwalk and West Mabou Beach & Trails

4+ miles, easy. Total driving time: 2¼ hours

This morning, you can choose to meander through the Margaree River Valley passing through the small communities that call the valley home. Perhaps you'll consider trying fly-fishing in one of the local rivers or simply learning about the area's rich history of fishing at the Salmon Museum. Make a visit to the shops and studios of renowned local crafters, including potters, painters, and quilters. Contributing to the area's culture are the Scottish tenant farmers, or crofters, who came to Cape Breton Island in the early 1800s. Cast out of their highland homes by the English, they brought many of their traditions with them when they settled in Cape Breton. Reaching Margaree Forks, you leave the Cabot Trail to arrive at Inverness, a scenic seaside community and top getaway for the golf set. Choose from two easy walks, the first along an idyllic boardwalk, and the second along a long stretch of soft sand at beautiful Inverness Beach. With the average ocean temperature hovering around 68°F, Inverness Beach is home to the warmest ocean waters north of the Carolinas (including Cape Cod and Long Island). Following a swim or refreshment at the beach café, you make your way south along the Ceilidh Trail (Hwy 19), which snakes along the western coast of Cape Breton Island. This area is renowned for its ceilidh music performances, square dances, and parties. Reaching Mabou, the hot spot of Cape Breton's Celtic music scene, consider popping into the Red Shoe Pub, owned by the sisters of Nova Scotia's popular musical family, the Rankins, for a pint or bite to eat. After enjoying the delights of Mabou, travel along back country roads to secluded West Mabou Beach Provincial Park. Highlighted by a wide sweep of sandy beach backed by a dune system, the park offers a several walking trails along the bluffs and through agricultural land and marshes, all with fine views. Your destination for the evening is North America's first single-malt whiskey distillery (and inn) in the small town of Glenville, where a tour and tasting await. After dinner, be sure to visit the on-site pub to enjoy their daily ceilidh of Cape Breton music and musicians.

Accommodation: The Glenora Inn and Distillery, Glenville

Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner (and Whiskey Tasting)

DAY 3

Acadian Trail. Optional Walks: Le Chemin du Buttereau or Le Buttereau

5.2 miles, moderate, 1,100-ft. elevation gain and loss, with some steep sections. Optional walks: 2.9 miles, easy to moderate, 100-ft. elevation gain and 200-ft. elevation loss or 1 mile, easy to moderate, 50-ft. elevation gain and 200-ft. elevation loss. Total driving time: 1 hour

Today you enter the Cape Breton Highlands National Park, a truly stunning portion of the winding Cabot Trail. The Acadian Trail begins near the Chéticamp Visitor Center and rises almost 1,000 feet above the Chéticamp River. As you hike, admire panoramic views along the Acadian Coastline, the river valley, and the park's highland interior. Follow the trail as it winds to the top of Burnt Mountain, making your way through thick blueberry bushes, keeping an eye out for evidence of bear and moose. Should you prefer an easier walk option—or an additional walk option—head further up the Cabot Trail to Le Buttereau

Trailhead. Retrace the steps of the Acadian pioneers who travelled this cart path from Le Buttereau, a small settlement of seven families, to Chéticamp along an easy out-and-back walk or longer loop option. Your home for the next two nights is the fishing village of Chéticamp, originally settled in the 1760s by exiled Acadians from the French territory further south when it was surrendered to the English. This vibrant community has maintained its cultural roots, as you can see from the exquisite hooked rugs and other crafts as you browse the area's small shops. Here in Chéticamp, you may also be able to catch a Celtic musical performance.

Accommodation: Maison Fiset House, Chéticamp

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4

Skyline Trail. Afternoon option: Corney Brook or whale watching excursion (at your own expense)

5.7 miles, easy to moderate, 400-ft. elevation gain and loss. Afternoon option: 4 miles, easy to moderate, 450-ft. elevation gain and loss. Total driving time: 1 hour

This morning's walking route is the famous Skyline Trail, with its spectacular views from 1,000 feet above sea level. You begin at about 950 feet and reach a maximum of 1,300 feet, so you are not climbing all the way to that elevation. From the dramatic headland cliff, you can trace the Cabot Trail around the mountainsides and, on a very clear day, you may be able to see the French archipelago of Les Îles de la Madeleine in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. It is not uncommon to sight whales in the water far below, and, along the trail, moose and eagles. After a picnic lunch, you may choose to set off on an exciting whale-watching boat tour out of Chéticamp—humpback, minke, pilot, and fin whales are common in this Gulf corridor called the Cape Breton Trough. Alternatively, the Corney Brook trail follows a meandering brook through mixed hardwood forest to a small waterfall—again keep an eye out for moose, birds, and snowshoe hare.

Accommodation: Maison Fiset House, Chéticamp

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5

Bog Trail. Lone Shieling Trail. White Point Trail

0.3 miles, easy. 0.4 miles, easy. 4.8 miles, easy. Total driving time: 2 hours

This morning you have two easy (and very short) warm-up walks. The Bog trail takes you on a boardwalk through a highland plateau bog with interpretive plaques along the way introducing you to the fascinating flora and fauna that make up the bog's unique ecosystem. The Lone Shieling loop trail begins at a historic crofter's hut and leads through a hardwood forest of sugar maple trees, some of which are 350 years old! Continuing your drive along the northernmost part of the Cabot Trail, to the White Point Trail, where you'll find some of the most dramatic coastal scenery in Cape Breton. Reaching a grassy point, you'll gaze out to sweeping views of Aspy Bay, as waves crash on the rocky coast below. A small cemetery at the tip of the point dates back to the settlement of this area in the late 1700s. Return to the trailhead and continue to your day's destination, the award-winning Keltic Lodge Resort & Spa, stunningly located on a peninsula jutting into the Atlantic, with a backdrop view of Cape Smokey.

Accommodation: Keltic Lodge, Ingonish Beach

Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 6

Franey Mountain. Optional Walks: Clyburn Valley and Middle Head

4.6 miles, moderate with a challenging section, 1,150-ft. elevation gain and loss. Optional walks: 5 miles, easy and 2.4 miles, easy. Total driving time: 10 minutes

This morning, you may opt for the exhilarating walk up Franey Mountain, a steep and steady ascent through Acadian forest and a stand of hardwoods. Rising from sea level, your surroundings change to balsam fir, with trailing arbutus and pipsisawa underfoot. At Franey's peak, you are rewarded with a panoramic view of the open sea with Middle Head and Cape Smokey to the east, Money Point to the south, and the Clyburn Valley below. Another walk available today (either instead of, or in addition to your morning outing), is a path through Clyburn Valley at the base of Franey Mountain. This riverside walk takes you on a path through spectacular stands of hardwood trees, impressive boulders (some bigger than cars!), old abandoned beaver ponds, verdant meadows, and fragrant apple trees. You'll pass the remains of an old gold mine—gold was never discovered in the area, and after years of fruitless effort the mine finally closed in 1916. Returning to your resort, you may opt for a dip in the heated outdoor pool or enjoy the spa facilities. Those with more energy to burn may also choose to walk from the hotel on the Middle Head Trail that snakes out on the cliff-bound peninsula that divides Ingonish Bay.

Accommodation: Keltic Lodge, Ingonish Beach

Included Meals: Breakfast

Departure from Ingonish Beach

This morning, options include a relaxed stroll on the pink granite stones of Ingonish Beach, or perhaps a round of golf at the renowned Highland Links course, or indulging in the spa's offerings before departing for onward travels. (Golf and spa fees are not included in tour price, advance reservations required.)
