After a 45-minute boat ride, arrive at Reserva Amazonica. Lunch is included today, and you'll have time to enjoy the extensive trail system with an interpretive guide this afternoon. This evening, join an included "Twilight River" excursion or catch a nature presentation in the Eco Center. Dinner is in the lodge dining room tonight. Note: Due to the logistics of getting to Reserva Amazonica Lodge, there are restrictions on what luggage you can bring. Please use the small bag you brought for Machu Picchu to transfer only what you need for these two overnights from your large suitcase. Your large luggage will remain in secure storage in Puerto Maldonado.

DAY 2: Full day in Peruvian Amazon

Breakfast is from 5:00 - 10:00 a.m. Today, you can enjoy an excursion to Lake Sandoval. After a 30-minute boat ride to the Tambopata National Reserve, wildlife surrounds you during a one-hour walk to reach the lake. Then, glide in a wooden canoe across a beautiful oxbow lake. This area is home to the endangered giant river otter as well as red howler monkeys, macaws, prehistoric hoatzins, anacondas, point-tailed palm creepers, and side-neck turtles. Spend two hours on the lake delighting in all that it has to offer.

After lunch, discover the Inkaterra Canopy Walkway. A five-minute boat ride takes you to the Inkaterra Canopy Interpretation Center. After ascending the first tower, at 95 feet above the forest floor, you will walk through the treetops for one hour, along suspension bridges that link eight observation platforms. Enjoy landscapes and vistas that would be practically unimaginable from below, while you take in views of giant strangler fig trees, orchids, toucans, woodpeckers, trogons, and—with luck—monkeys and sloths. After your descent from the canopy, a 30-minute walk through the jungle gives you a chance to see the Amazon from a different perspective. In this lush ecosystem, you may observe various species of amphibians, birds, mammals, insects, and flora. At the end of your walk, return to the lodge.

Dinner is in the main dining room tonight. Then fall asleep to the song of the Amazon.

In the early afternoon, transfer by boat and van to the Puerto Maldonado airport for your flight home via Lima. Upon arrival, check in to comfortable rooms for day use. Tonight, dinner is at your leisure before returning to the airport for overnight flights departing in the late evening.
