Overview

The poet William Wordsworth was moved to proclaim England's Lake District "one of the loveliest places that man has ever found." Painters John Constable and J.M.W. Turner were also inspired to render the area's rolling hills, dramatic mountains, and lake-jeweled valleys in paintings treasured today as astonishing achievements in British art. On a walking adventure in this northern region, it is simply nature's mastery that attracts your admiration. The Lake District National Park offers walking through thick forests, around tranquil lakeshores, and along ridgelines graced with sweeping views, pausing in communities with a quintessentially rural English charm. The route to Wordsworth's beloved retreat at Grasmere Vale, the trails around Cumbria's beautiful lake of Ullswater, and the views of the Langdale Pikes, some of England's highest peaks, all create a distinctive destination for a stouthearted day's walk. In idyllic settings, accommodations offer a warm welcome, comfortable amenities, and close communion with the landscape. A classic country-house hotel, once owned by children's author Beatrix Potter, overlooks Lake Windermere. Cozy English pub lunches and elegant dinners featuring local cuisine all enhance this delightful experience.

Daily Itinerary

DAY 1

Arrival - Penrith. Askham to Pooley Bridge; 4 miles, easy. Afternoon walk, Dockray to Aira Force; 2 miles, easy

Upon meeting your guide(s), you immediately transfer to the village of Askham to walk through the Lowther Estate, owned by Lord Lonsdale. Continuing over the fell and into the Lake District National Park, you pass ancient prehistoric settlements and enjoy first views of the Cumbrian Mountains and Ullswater. Descending to the village of Pooley Bridge at the edge of the lake, you pause for lunch in a local pub. This village was one of the earliest settlements on the lake, dating to the Celts. Following lunch, you transfer to the hamlet of Dockray, overlooking the lake, and walk by Aira Beck toward Aira Force, probably the most famous of the Lake District's waterfalls. Here you admire the views and are regaled with tales about the romanticism that the region has long inspired.

The short drive to the hotel just a few miles outside of Keswick allows plenty of time to settle in before meeting for a pre-dinner drink and a fuller introduction to the week ahead. The hotel restaurant features local produce whenever possible, so tonight's dinner promises excellent cuisine.

Borrowdale Gates Hotel, Grange-in-Borrowdale

This property is set on two acres of woodland and located in a valley with beautiful views in every direction. All rooms are well equipped and individually decorated.

DAY 2

Derwentwater; 5 miles, easy. Optional afternoon walk to Castle Crag; 3.5 miles, moderate

After a breakfast buffet consisting of cereal, fruit, pastries, and cold meats, or a traditional hot Cumbrian breakfast, you take a walk along a Victorian terrace above Derwentwater before heading down to the lake at Hawes End. Following a ride on a Victorian ferryboat across the lake, to Lodore, you walk back past the hotel to the Hamlet of Grange. This hamlet is noteworthy for its double-arched bridge, built in 1675, that crosses the River Derwent. Stone and whitewashed cottages sit snugly here in the heart of the Borrowdale Valley. After lunch, you have the option to walk back to the hotel (400 yards) for some relaxation or you may opt for the optional walk to Castle Crag following in the footsteps of the men of Borrowdale, quarrymen and miners of yesteryear. This valley was once home to many working slate mines, most of which are now closed. Dinner tonight is at the Lyzzick Hall Hotel, located on the lower slopes of Skiddaw Mountain, with stunning views across the vale. The restaurant prides itself on using freshly prepared local ingredients and herbs from their own garden.

Borrowdale Gates Hotel, Grange-in-Borrowdale

DAY 3

Whinlatter Pass to Buttermere Valley; 5 miles, easy to moderate Afternoon walk along the shores of Buttermere; 2.5 miles, easy

Today you cross Whinlatter Pass, which connects the beauty of the Keswick Valley to Buttermere and beyond. Here magnificent nature predominates, and as you walk along the shores of Crummock Water, you see stirring views of the high mountains surrounding this pretty vale.

Completing the walk at the hamlet of Buttermere, you enjoy a pub lunch and afterward an optional walk along the picturesque shore of Buttermere Lake, before boarding the coach to ride over Honister Pass and back to the hotel via Borrowdale. There is time to refresh at the hotel and enjoy its beautiful surroundings, before heading back into Keswick, where you enjoy dinner in a local restaurant.

Borrowdale Gates Hotel, Grange-in-Borrowdale

DAY 4

Rydal Mount, The Vale of Grasmere; 2.5 miles, easy to moderate. Afternoon walk along Loughrigg Terrace; 3.5 miles, easy to moderate

Today you meander through one of the region's prettiest dales, walking in the area around two of the smaller lakes, Grasmere and Rydal Water, and in the footsteps of William Wordsworth, one of England's most famous poets of the early 19th century. Your day begins with a tour of Rydal Mount, William Wordsworth's best loved family home for the greater part of his life from 1813 to his death in 1850 at the age of 80. The house continues to be owned by the Wordsworth family and retains the feel of a lived-in family home. You leave Rydal Mount and walk to Grasmere, via the "coffin route", passing by Dove Cottage, Wordsworth's first home, and break for lunch in the village of Grasmere. The day is complete with a walk around the opposite side of the lake, and along Loughrigg Terrace, another Victorian walkway. At day's end, you transfer to your next hotel, located on the edge of the lakeside town of Bowness-on-Windermere. Here, a warm welcome awaits and later you enjoy a delicious dinner prepared by the hotel's chef. Local favorites such as steak-and-ale pie or delicious Cumbrian beef are presented.

Lindeth Howe Country House Hotel, Bowness-on-Windermere

A classic country-house hotel, once owned by children's author Beatrix Potter. The property features a sauna, swimming pool, and rooms overlooking a peaceful lake, gardens, and woodlands.

DAY 5

Beatrix Potter's Tarns over Windermere;
6 miles, easy to moderate

Following a full-English breakfast, you set off for a walk that provides superb vistas across Lake Windermere—the region's second-deepest lake—which snakes its way between the hills of the Southern Lakeland. Departing on foot from the hotel, you board the ferry to cross the lake and, once on land, amble up an easy path past small mountain tarns with open distant views of the undulating and treeless central hills. At the highest point of Latterbarrow, only about a 650-foot elevation gain, there are superb 360-degree views of all of the Lakeland. From this point, you descend to the charming village of Hawkshead for lunch in a traditional 18th-century pub featuring home-cooked fare. Here in Hawkshead you'll find not only young William Wordsworth's school, but also the home of Beatrix Potter, and there is time to visit the gallery of her original paintings in a beautiful 17th-century building. The pedestrian streets, squares, and quaint architecture of this ancient market town invite exploration.

Later, a minibus returns you to the lakeside ferry back to your hotel, and your evening is free to explore the town of Bowness on the shores of Windermere Lake, and eat in a local pub or restaurant.

Lindeth Howe Country House Hotel, Bowness-on-Windermere

DAY 6

The Langdale Pikes, Skelwith Bridge to Great Langdale; 4.5 miles, easy;
Langdale Valley; 2 miles, easy

The Langdale Pikes are one of the best loved and most photographed areas of the Lake District. A home for walkers, fell-runners, and climbers, the valley is surrounded by some of the area's tallest mountains, and nearby is England's highest, Scafell Pike. Starting at the tiny village of Skelwith Bridge, you pass by a slate factory, a waterfall, and a small lake before arriving at the hamlet of Elterwater. From there, the walk takes you on a winding track into Great Langdale, deep into the valley where cars are fewer and walkers predominant. After lunch at the only pub owned by the National Trust in the whole country, located in a hotel that has been catering to walkers for over 300 years, you walk further into the valley, before completing the walk. Returning to the hotel, this evening you toast your explorations with a farewell drink and celebratory dinner in a local restaurant.

Lindeth Howe Country House Hotel, Bowness-on-Windermere

DAY 7

Departure to Penrith

Enjoy a late breakfast before your transfer to the Penrith train station, where you depart for your next destination.

ITINERARY CHANGES

Please bear in mind that this is a typical itinerary, and the actual activities, sites, and accommodations may vary due to season, special events, weather, or transportation schedules. SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL

Country Walkers is a leader in active travel with responsible tourism an integral part of our core values. Our tours reflect our dedication to best travel practices—and to the preservation of indigenous cultures and the environment. Country Walkers has made a donation on behalf of every traveler to the CW Travelers Fund, which supports designated projects in the communities and habitats in which we travel. We invite you to learn more about our efforts and initiatives for giving back.

Here's just one example that highlights our sustainable practices:

Lake District Search and Mountain Rescue Association: Country Walkers has made a donation on behalf of every tour participant to a local chapter of the Lake District Search and Mountain Rescue Association, which has 10 Teams operating in the Lake District, all staffed by volunteers. They are on call 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, ensuring walkers in the fells are able to call upon their skills if they get into difficulties. CW Guide, Chris Berry, is an active member of the Duddon & Furness Team. WEATHER

The British Isles, lying between the Atlantic Ocean and the North Sea, have an oceanic climate with cool summers and mild winters. Average daytime temperatures, May through October, range from the upper 50s to mid-70s. In summer, the prevailing westerly and northwesterly winds have a cooling effect. Although England is known for its rainy weather, most of the rain falls between late October and January. During the drier months, England often enjoys fine weather. The pleasant summer days are long, with daylight lasting until 10:00 p.m.

For up-to-date forecasts, see qwikcast.com. For historical average temperatures and rainfall, see weatherbase.com.

FOOD & DRINK

High-quality local cuisine is something many restaurants and pubs in England pride themselves on. Many towns hold farmers' markets on specific days, and many restaurants use excellent local ingredients. Cuisine ranges from international, to local specialties, to basic pub fare.

Dinner menus feature seafood, chicken, beef or lamb, and even venison or duck. Desserts can be lavish and imaginative, and often feature local clotted cream (a very dense cream with the consistency of whipped butter). Typical pub lunches are fish and chips, a wide selection of sandwiches (many vegetarian), and of course, a plethora of tasty brews. From local bakeries, you may enjoy baked products such as sausage rolls, pork pies, or Cornish pasties, plus a range of delicious cakes and scones.

Travel Tip

- Bringing your own hair dryer or other electrical device? You'll need a travel converter, available at most hardware, travel, or consumer electronic stores.
- For laptops or an electronic device with a dual voltage switch, you'll need the adapter plug but not a converter.

Travel Tip

The English Pub

The much-written-about English pub or “public house,” described in the past as the heart of England, is apparently experiencing a decline in numbers. That being said, much of English social life still revolves around the pub, especially one’s “local.” Like so many things in travel, there are many unwritten rules governing pub etiquette. Catching the bar tender’s eye without wild gesticulation, respecting the invisible line (queue!), and paying immediately in cash for your drinks are just a few. A range of alcoholic and nonalcoholic drinks are available at a pub. When ordering beer, the key information for the bar tender is whether you want a pint or a half-pint, and a lager, bitter, or another type of beer (for example a bottle, usually displayed on the shelves behind the bar). If the bar tender is not too busy, he or she may have time to provide some explanation about local or regional brews.

Pub hours

Monday-Saturday: 11:00 a.m.-11:00 p.m.*

Sunday: 11:00 a.m.-10:30 p.m.*

*Some pubs may have a 24-hour drinking license and be open after 11:00 p.m.!

LIFE IN ENGLAND

Shopping and banking hours

Shops and stores are generally open Monday to Saturday between 9:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. and on Sundays from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Most department stores and some supermarkets are open all day, every day of the week, from 9:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Banks are open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday (with some branches open on Saturday mornings).

Meal times

Breakfast (“brekkie”) is served at hotels from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. In restaurants and pubs, lunch is served from noon to 2:00 p.m. and dinner is usually served from 6:00 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. (but verify locally). “Elevenses” is a late-morning coffee or tea break, and Afternoon Tea is usually taken around 4:00 p.m.

TIPPING

In restaurants and pubs, if service is not included (check your bill), it is customary to leave 10 to 20 percent of the total. Taxi drivers receive 10 to 15 percent of the fare. For luggage assistance, a small tip is appropriate, at your discretion.

Packing List

PACKING TIPS

Pack light! Keep in mind there will be times you may have to carry your own luggage short distances, especially before and after your Country Walkers tour. Due to space constraints, we require you to limit your luggage to one medium piece (approximately 18x15x29 inches or 8,000 cu. in.) and one small carry-on, per person. We recommend packing any personal necessities, medications, your hotel itinerary/emergency contact information, your hiking boots (or shoes), and extra clothes in your carry-on luggage in the event that your baggage is delayed. We suggest leaving valuable jewelry at home. A copy of your passport or other important documents should be kept in a separate area of your luggage. Always be alert when carrying a purse, camera, money belt, or backpack in busy cities, airports, and train stations.

FOOTWEAR

- » Waterproof hiking boots or walking shoes. There are many brands to choose from. Proper fit is crucial, so try on new boots while wearing socks you plan to use on tour. Be sure to break in new footwear well before your tour begins. By the time you're ready to join your walking tour, you should be able to complete 5-8 miles of walking without discomfort. We require lightweight boots or shoes with proper ankle support and good tread to ensure stability on all types of terrain. Waterproof footwear keeps feet dry in heavy rain and water resistant footwear keeps feet dry in heavy dew. Country Walkers reserves the right to deny participation to any guest not wearing appropriate footwear.
- » Wool or synthetic, moisture-wicking socks (cotton socks are not recommended for walking as they will quickly cause blisters)
- » Blister remedy

CLOTHING

- » Lightweight, wash-and-wear long pants
- » Long-sleeved, wash-and-wear shirt
- » T-shirts and shorts
- » Polar fleece or light wool pullover (it will keep you warm even when wet)

- » Dinner attire: dress is smart casual. Shorts and walking boots/shoes are not appropriate in any dining rooms on this tour.

OUTERWEAR

- » Waterproof rain gear: jacket, pants, hat, or hood. This gear must be of good quality and not just water resistant, but properly waterproof. It would also be a good idea to bring gaiters as this may keep your legs dry when walking through wet bracken or heather.
- » Windbreaker with hood (your rain gear may be suitable)
- » Hat with a broad brim or visor

EQUIPMENT

- » Pack (minimum size of 25L): large enough to carry water, extra clothing, rain gear, and personal items (camera, etc.)
- » Waterproof cover for pack
- » Telescopic walking sticks. (Please note that while telescopic walking sticks are recommended for this tour, they are not provided by Country Walkers. Therefore, please plan on bringing your own should you wish to use them.)
- » Water bottle, canteen, or CamelBak-type water reservoir or hydration pack to carry your own water while walking (equivalent of one liter)
- » Sunblock and lip balm
- » Insect repellent
- » Sunglasses
- » Toilet kit for when facilities are not available on the walks. Include zip-lock baggies, tissues, and moist towelettes, which can be disposed of upon return to the hotel.
- » Personal first-aid kit including any medications you ordinarily take (in their original containers)

OPTIONAL

- » Binoculars
- » Camera and charger and/or extra batteries
- » Zip-lock bags (to keep camera and valuables dry)
- » Small notebook and pen

- » Field guides
- » Bandana
- » Alarm clock
- » Folding umbrella
- » Washcloth (many European hotels do not have them)
- » Lightweight gloves (wool or polypropylene)
