Travel Style

Our Self-Guided Walking Adventures are ideal for travelers with an independent spirit who enjoy exploring at their own pace. We provide authentic accommodations, luggage transfers, and some meals, along with comprehensive Route Notes, detailed maps, and 24-hour emergency assistance. This gives you the freedom to focus on the things that matter to you—no group, no guide, and no set schedule to stand in the way of enjoying your adventure, your way.

Overview

This self-guided walking tour showcases the best of the southwest of Ireland—County Cork and County Kerry. The lakes and mountains of County Cork are a scenic beginning, along the shores and forest paths of Gougane Barra Lake. You continue on to Bantry Bay and Killarney, and the Killarney National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site on the Ring of Kerry, the route that circles the Iveragh peninsula with its sweeping views and long beaches. You reach the coast in lively Dingle, rich in Irish traditions and history—from dozens of pubs where you can find music nightly, to Iron Age forts and stones, and early Christian sites on sweeping headlands overlooking the Atlantic. A contemporary Irish welcome greets you on your walks and in luxurious town- and country-house hotels and by the fireside at fine restaurants with the freshest local cuisine.

Daily Itinerary

DAY 1

Arrival in Cork. Transfer to Gougane Barra. Optional walk: Gougane Barra Forest Park; 2.5 miles, easy

From your arrival point, you are met and transferred to the small hamlet of Gougane Barra in western Cork, a wonderfully pristine part of Ireland, and to your lakeside family-run hotel overlooking St. Finbarr's Oratory on a small island. Surrounded by heather-clad mountains, the lake is a beautiful and peaceful place, and there is a lovely walk available to stretch your legs.

Gougane Barra Hotel, Gougane Barra

On the shores of tranquil Lake Gougane Barra, this traditional three-star hotel, in the same family for five generations, is adjacent to a national forest park with a large network of trails. Comfortable modern rooms in warm colors have either lake or mountain views. Available for guests' use are boats and bicycles, also several cozy sitting rooms, and a bar. An excellent restaurant serves updated traditional fare. The stone remains of a 7th-century monastery are on an island in the middle of the lake.

DAY 2

Gougane Barra Forest Park; 6 miles, easy to moderate

Awakening to lakeside tranquility and a full Irish breakfast, today you explore the Gougane Barra Forest Park, which offers a range of trails of varying distances and degrees of difficulty, each one with a specific theme that best showcases the spectacular panoramas of mountain, valley, stream, and lake. Developed as a forest park in the early 1960s and officially opened in 1966, the Gougane Barra valley and lake owe their dramatic geology to glacial origins. The Forest Park of over 350 acres was planted in the late 1930s over what was once farmland. Now you walk amidst impressive stands of lodgepole pine, Sitka spruce, and light green Japanese larch. Finbarr, the founder of Cork, established a monastery here in the 6th century as well as a hermitage on the small island in Gougane Barra Lake (Lough an Ghugain), which can be reached by a short causeway.

Gougane Barra Hotel, Gougane Barra

DAY 3

The Sheep's Head Way; 6.6 miles, moderate, 500-ft. elevation gain

Today, stroll along a section of the Sheep's Head Way, a long distance trail over 93 miles (150 km) in length, which passes along the coast of the Sheep's Head Peninsula and throughout the general Bantry area. Walking here, you'll discover a peaceful, unspoiled peninsula which has some of the most beautiful scenery in all of Ireland—low, rugged hills and cliffs that feel wonderfully remote, despite being no more than a few hundred meters from roads at any point. After a short taxi transfer from your hotel, the route starts at a pass along the spine of the peninsula and follows a stretch of this ridgeline, with extensive panoramas of the Atlantic. The Caha Mountains and the Beara peninsula are clearly visible across Bantry Bay to the north and to the south the more sheltered Dunmanus Bay, with its pretty villages nestled along the shore. At the end of your walk, you arrive at Bantry House, a stately 18th-century mansion set in formal gardens on the southern shore of Bantry Bay. It was the seat of the Earls of Bantry and has extensive gardens, as well as a very pleasant café, on the grounds. Admission here is included on your tour (please note that Bantry House is closed on Mondays from April 14–May 31 and September 1–October 31; please avoid starting your tour on a Saturday during this time frame should you wish to visit Bantry House on Day 3). Your final destination of the day is just a few miles away in the quiet coastal village of Ballylickey.

Seaview House Hotel, Ballylickey

Set in manicured grounds and stunning subtropical gardens overlooking Bantry Bay, this elegant Victorian manor house is renowned for its gracious hospitality and attention to detail—a warm and inviting staff always happy to chat, fresh flowers, attractive antiques, sumptuous fabrics, and furnishings with personality. In the award-winning restaurant—set with polished mahogany tables and crisp linen—service is friendly and informal while the menu features superb cuisine based on local produce, complemented by a well-stocked wine cellar.

DAY 4

Derrycunihy Church to Killarney; 7 miles or 9 miles, easy to moderate, 1,000-ft. elevation gain

Today begins with a transfer (approximately one hour) over Moll's Gap, with the famous Ladies' View over the Killarney Lakes, and to the start of your walk at Derrycunihy Church on Galway's Bridge. The route takes you through the Killarney National Park, the home of the only natural herd of red deer in Britain or Ireland. You continue through the mountains to the Torc Waterfall and on to Muckross House and Abbey, where Queen Victoria paid a visit to the Herbert family in 1861. Today, many of the rooms in this magnificent mansion have been restored to their original Victorian splendor, and between the months of April and July, the mature rhododendrons of Muckross Gardens are in spectacular bloom. Adjacent to the house are Muckross Traditional Farms, which portray the farming methods and way of life of a typical rural community of the 1930s. The workshops, shops, and restaurant here are all worth exploring. From here you transfer to your accommodation for the next two nights in Killarney.

Cahernane House Hotel, Killarney

The former estate of the Earls of Pembroke, this hotel was built in 1877 amidst tranquility and lush greenery on the doorstep of Killarney National Park and a 15-minute walk from the center of town. The country manor's deluxe rooms and inviting common areas are decorated in Victorian style. The property also boasts an award-winning restaurant as well as bistro-style dining in the old wine cellar.

DAY 5

Layover day in Killarney

At your doorstep are a plethora of options in and around the town of Killarney, from a range of walks, to castle touring, town strolling and shopping, bike riding or pony trekking. Perhaps one of the best-known natural sites is the Gap of Dunloe, a narrow mountain pass between Macgillycuddy's Reeks and Purple Mountain. About seven miles in length, from north to south, within it are five lakes—Coosaun Lough, Black Lake, Cushnavally Lake, Auger Lake, and Black Lough,—all connected by the River Loe. Connecting the first two lakes is the Wishing Bridge, so-called because it is said that wishes made while upon it are destined to come true. Nearby is Ross Castle, standing on the shore of Lough Leane. The original home of the O'Donoghue Ross Chieftains in the 15th century, the castle has been magnificently restored. The site holds evidence of human habitation going back 9,000 years, with one of Europe's earliest Bronze Age copper mines dating back some 4,500 years. One walking option here is a 90-minute route around the archaeological sites of Ross Island. You can also walk into the vibrant and charming town center of Killarney, with its long tradition of late-evening shopping, and the tall-spired St. Mary's Cathedral, as well as a Gothic Franciscan church.

Cahernane House Hotel, Killarney

DAY 6

The Dingle Way: Ventry to Dunquin; 6.5–8 miles, easy to moderate, 650-ft. elevation gain

This morning's destination is the Dingle Peninsula, just over an hour's drive away. A first short stop is at the fabulous Inch Beach, made famous in David Lean's 1970 film, "Ryan's Daughter." The drive takes you past Dingle (though you'll have plenty of time upon your return to explore the town and surroundings) and on to Ventry Beach, where you begin the day's walk. The route starts out along the beach before rising slightly to skirt the base of Mount Eagle. Here spectacular views open up over the Blasket Islands and the Atlantic Ocean as you pass beside Neolithic beehive stone huts. The walk ends at the excellent Blasket Islands visitor center, which provides an informative overview. You soon return to Dingle, perhaps for a pint of Guinness at one of the town's 52 pubs, before walking to dinner at a restaurant of your choosing.

Benners Hotel, Dingle

In the heart of the town of Dingle, this luxurious, family-run town hotel is a local landmark. Spacious guestrooms blend traditional antique-style furniture with elegant comforts. The bar and common rooms are richly decorated with antique furnishings and have fireplaces. Bustling Dingle's many restaurants, shops, harbor, and walking routes are all easily reached on foot.

DAY 7

Layover day in Dingle

The town of Dingle invites exploration—with its colorful houses, lively fishing port (and resident dolphin, Funghi), pubs and restaurants, inviting shops, and livestock market. Nearby are local walks, as well as boating options. A vibrant town of only 2,000 residents, it is a flourishing tourist, fishing, and agricultural center. Boat trips from Dingle include whale-watching excursions and deep-sea fishing. As a market and fishing town, its numerous pubs not only provide delicious food and drink, but some also specialize in selling items from Wellington boots to sheets, blankets, and fertilizer! The town is a center for traditional music, and you can listen to it in the pubs in the evening, and by day perhaps visit the Dingle Record Shop on Green Street, or the Dingle Music School, dedicated to making Irish music as accessible as possible. Pottery is another local craft.

Benners Hotel, Dingle

DAY 8

Departure from Tralee

After breakfast, a complimentary transfer from Dingle to Tralee is provided (60–90 minutes) to make your train or bus connections.

ITINERARY CHANGES

Please bear in mind that this is a typical itinerary, and the actual activities, sites, and accommodations may vary due to season, special events, weather, or transportation schedules. We reserve the right to alter the itinerary, since tour arrangements are made up to a year in advance and unforeseen circumstances may arise that mandate change. Itinerary changes are made to improve the tour and your experience.

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

Country Walkers is a leader in active travel with responsible tourism an integral part of our core values. Our tours reflect our dedication to best travel practices—and to the preservation of indigenous cultures and the environment. Country Walkers has made a donation on behalf of every traveler to the CW Travelers Fund, which supports designated projects in the communities and habitats in which we travel. We invite you to learn more about our efforts and initiatives for giving back.

ACTIVITY LEVEL

This tour is one of our Self-Guided Walking Adventures, rated easy to moderate, with an average of 4–9 miles per day, with options on some days. The terrain includes daily elevation gains and losses. Walks are on well-maintained dirt trails, either packed or with loose rocks and roots, as well as grassy paths and sandy beaches. This diverse and extensive itinerary includes some of southwest Ireland’s most stunning attractions, such as Gougane Barra Lake and Forest Park, Killarney National Park, and the Dingle Peninsula; reaching these locations requires transfers of 1–2 hours. The tour offers full days of walking as well as two layover days with fishing, horseback riding, whale watching, cycling, or shopping options, to name just a few.

INCLUSIONS

- » Full Irish breakfast daily and four dinners (days 1, 2, 3, and 4); beverages not included
- » All accommodations while on tour
- » Local transfers as noted in the itinerary
- » Orientation meeting with a Country Walkers representative
- » Luggage transfers between the hotels
- » Detailed Route Notes and maps (mailed to you approximately one month prior to your departure)
- » 24-hour tour-related support provided by Country Walkers’ local partner
- » 24-hour One Call International Emergency Hotline and Travel Assistance
- » The unbeatable and cumulative experience of the Country Walkers staff

LET THE JOURNEY BEGIN

Prior to your adventure you will be asked to sign a Participation Agreement and you will receive:

- » A Guest Information Form to complete and return at least 45 days prior to your tour
- » Luggage tags
- » Route Notes and maps
- » Your trip invoice

GRATUITIES

Standard gratuities for all hotels, meals, and services that are included in your tour price will be paid by Country Walkers; however additional tips are always welcome. Should you wish to tip for meals or services not included in the cost of the tour, please do so at your discretion. Local currency is preferred.

Traveling To and From Your Tour

STARTING POINT

Cork, Ireland

Based upon individual arrival times

A taxi driver will meet you in Cork (bus/train station, airport, or city hotel, holding a sign with Country Walkers and your name on it) and transfer you to the Gougane Barra Hotel, where the owners will meet you upon arrival to provide an orientation meeting, ensure you are comfortably settled, and answer any questions you may have.

In order to arrange your arrival transfer and orientation meeting, please provide us with your arrival and departure details by returning your Guest Information Form at least 45 days prior to the departure.

Please note that the tour price includes one arrival transfer from Cork to Gougane Barra on Day 1 of the tour. If traveling in a group of two or more with separate arrival times, additional charges will apply for multiple transfers.

MOST CONVENIENT AIRPORTS

Dublin International Airport (DUB), Dublin

dublinairport.com

Shannon Airport (SNN), Shannon

shannonairport.ie

GETTING TO THE STARTING POINT

From Dublin: Several airlines—particularly Aer Lingus (aerlingus.com)—offer direct flights from the east coast of the U.S. to Dublin International Airport. Due to the length and cost of a private transfer from Dublin to Cork, we recommend taking a train or bus from Dublin to Cork; Country Walkers is unable to make arrangements for private transfers originating in Dublin. Airlink shuttles (dublinbus.ie) depart the airport for Heuston train station every 10 minutes and the journey takes 45 minutes. The same bus continues to the Dublin central bus station (Busaras) should you wish to spend pre-tour time in Dublin. Trains from Heuston station to Cork take approximately 2 hours and 40 minutes. For the most current rail information, including reservations, schedules, and fares, please call Rail Europe at 800.438.7245 or consult their website: raileurope.com. More information and schedules for the Irish rail system, Iarnrod Eireann, may be found at irishrail.ie. Please note that you might obtain better rates by booking directly with Iarnrod Eireann rather than through Rail Europe.

Another, yet longer, option is to travel to Cork by bus. Several buses depart directly from the airport (aircoach.ie, gobe.ie, gobus.ie, or buseireann.ie). If you are spending pre-tour time in Dublin, Bus Eireann (buseireann.ie) also offers service to Cork from the Dublin central bus station (Busaras).

From Shannon: The main carriers here, Aer Lingus and Ryanair, are backed by several U.S.-based airlines, including United Airlines, Delta, and American Airlines. Buses depart Shannon Airport hourly for Cork. The journey takes approximately 2½ hours. For more details on schedules and fares, please visit buseireann.ie. Alternatively, Country Walkers would be pleased to arrange a 2½-hour private transfer for you from Shannon directly to your first hotel, Gougane Barra, at an additional cost of $100 per person (based on two travelers). Please contact us to request this service as soon as possible. The cost is payable directly to Country Walkers and is due with your final payment 90 days prior to departure. Our normal cancellation policy applies.

PRE-TOUR ACCOMMODATIONS

We recommend spending at least one day prior to and/or following the tour to explore the city of Dublin. For hotel and restaurant suggestions, please visit visitdublin.com.

Alternatively or additionally, you may wish to stay in Gougane Barra at the hotel where you will spend Nights 1 & 2 of the tour (keep in mind this is a remote area). Country Walkers would be happy to make a reservation on your behalf. Please contact us to request this service as soon as possible to ensure availability. The cost (subject to change) of $210 USD per double/twin room or $120 USD per double-for-single use room, including tax, breakfast, and dinner, is payable directly to Country Walkers and is due with your final payment 90 days prior to departure. Our normal cancellation policy applies. These rooms are reserved as a service for you and include a service charge. Better rates may be available online; however, please note that if you make your pre-tour reservation directly with the hotel, you may not be able to secure the same room as assigned to you for the nights on tour.

ENDING POINT

Tralee, Ireland

Based upon individual departure times

A transfer (60–90 minutes) will be provided from your last hotel in Dingle to the Tralee bus/train station or a city hotel.

In order to arrange your departure transfer to Tralee, please provide us with your arrival and departure details by returning your Guest Information Form at least 45 days prior to the departure.

Please note that the tour price includes one departure transfer from Dingle to Tralee on Day 8 of the tour. If traveling in a group of two or more with separate departure times, additional charges will apply for multiple transfers.

MOST CONVENIENT AIRPORT

Shannon International Airport (SNN), Shannon
shannonairport.com

LEAVING THE TOUR

The easiest way to travel to your next destination is by bus or private transfer. There are several buses from Tralee to Shannon per day (requiring one change in Limerick). The journey takes three hours. For more details on schedules and fares, please visit buseireann.ie. Alternatively, Country Walkers would be pleased to arrange a 2¼-hour private transfer for you from Dingle directly to Shannon Airport or a Shannon/Limerick hotel at an additional cost of $210 per transfer (based on one–three travelers) or $260 per transfer (based on four–eight travelers). Please contact us to request this service as soon as possible. The cost is payable directly to Country Walkers and is due with your final payment 90 days prior to departure. Our normal cancellation policy applies.

If you are travelling to Dublin, buses to Dublin's central bus station (Busaras) are available every two hours. The journey takes six hours (with a change in Limerick). For more details on schedules and fares, please visit buseireann.ie. Or you may wish to take the train. The journey from Tralee to Dublin Heuston station takes approximately four hours (with a change in Mallow). For the most current rail information, including reservations, schedules, and fares, please call Rail Europe at 800.438.7245 or consult their website: raileurope.com. More information and schedules for the Irish rail system, Iarnrod Eireann, may be found at irishrail.ie. Please note that you might obtain better rates by booking directly with Iarnrod Eireann rather than through Rail Europe.

POST-TOUR ACCOMMODATIONS

Should you wish to spend an additional night or two at your final hotel in Dingle, we would be happy to make a reservation on your behalf. Please contact us to request this service as soon as possible. The cost is payable directly to Country Walkers and is due with your final payment 90 days prior to departure. Our normal cancellation policy applies. These rooms are reserved as a service for you and include a service charge. Better rates may be available online; however, please note that if you make your pre-tour reservation directly with the hotel, you may not be able to secure the same room as assigned to you for the nights on tour. Please call for current rates.

Information & Policies

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES

Country Walkers guarantees the departure of every tour*, which guarantees peace of mind for every guest. From the moment your reservation is confirmed, you can start preparing for your adventure. We take care of all the details to ensure a seamless, Self-Guided experience. For best availability, reserve your trip early.

except in cases of force majeure*

RESERVATIONS

If you have not already gone through our reservations process, please note that the method by which Self-Guided Adventures are reserved differs in important ways from typical scheduled tours. We encourage all guests to refrain from purchasing plane tickets or making contingent plans until they receive confirmation from us. Here's how the process works:

1. Reservation Request. The process begins when you make a reservation request for this tour, either online at countrywalkers.com or by calling Country Walkers at 800.464.9255. Please note the online form does not on its own constitute a final reservation or a guarantee of tour space. If you use the form, one of our Tour Consultants will call within one business day. Outside of 90 days prior to the tour start date, a $350 per person credit card authorization is required at the time of the reservation request. Within 90 days prior to the tour start date, your final tour cost, pre-authorized to your credit card, is required. If we are unable to accommodate you on your preferred dates/tour (or an alternative of your choice), this payment is fully refunded.
2. Reservation Request Receipt. Upon receipt of your deposit and preferred tour start dates, you will be provided with an emailed reservation request receipt, stating your reservation number and reconfirming the details of your reservation request (tour name, departure date, and tour price), while we get working on securing availability with all the hotels.
3. Confirmation. Our goal is to confirm your reservation request within five business days; however, this may take longer for a variety of reasons. All of our accommodations are available on a request basis; we do not hold blocks of rooms and, therefore, must confirm availability at the time of your request. If at all possible, we recommend you provide a range of back-up tour start dates at the time of your initial request. Once your reservation is confirmed, a Tour Consultant will contact you and your credit card will be automatically charged the $350 per person deposit (or full payment if within 90 days prior to your tour start date). Once you have received our official confirmation, you can make flight reservations.

4. Final Payment. Final tour payment is due 90 days prior to tour departure date. As pricing is determined over a year in advance, we may be forced to change our listed price over time. However, please note that once your reservation is confirmed, we will always honor the price quoted when you booked.

TOUR ACCOMMODATIONS

Hotel Availability: Since we typically use small, boutique properties for Self-Guided tours, securing availability can sometimes prove challenging, especially on short notice. (Again, we encourage guests to book early and be flexible.) On some tours, if our standard property is not available, we may have alternate hotels of equivalent quality that we have approved. We'll book one of these alternates if the standard property is not available. If the hotel or room type requires a surcharge, we will contact you prior to reserving it. We will not reserve non-approved properties.

Room Category: We typically book standard rooms. If you are interested in upgrading your room type, please contact a Tour Consultant. Please bear in mind that upgrades are not available at every hotel; surcharges will be determined once we know what's available. Triple rooms (or rooms with two beds) can be a rarity. Should you desire such an accommodation, we may need to offer two rooms—supplements may apply. Please allow us extra time to sort the options out.

ORIENTATION MEETING & TRANSFERS

Though Self-Guided tours are a predominantly private experience, there are occasions where you may be in contact with others. Because guests are allowed to pick their own start dates, there may be other Country Walkers travelers staying in the same properties as you or even starting on the same date. For this reason, we may need to combine your orientation meeting with that of other guests or ask you to share on-tour transfers. This does not mean you need to walk together.

GUEST RESPONSIBILITIES

Each guest has the responsibility to select a trip appropriate to his/her abilities and interests and to prepare for the trip by carefully reading the confirmation materials. To join this trip, you must be in good health and capable of completing activities as described in the day-to-day itinerary. Our in-house experts welcome the opportunity to discuss the tour in more detail. In order to meet your needs, we ask that you please share any relevant physical limitations or health conditions when you make your reservation.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Cancellations received 91 days or more prior to the tour start date will incur a loss of $150; cancellations received between 90 and 61 days prior to the tour start date incur a loss of 25 percent of the tour price; there are no refunds within 60 days of the tour start date. Up to 91 days prior to departure, you may transfer your reservation, depending on availability, from one departure to another in the same calendar year at no cost*. Cancellations must be made in writing. Please note that the tiered tour price is based on a guarantee of a specified number of guests—should your group decrease in size, we reserve the right to alter the per person price if necessary as reflected in the Tour Price table.

One transfer per year; afterwards a modest per person transfer fee will apply. Please note that tours with seasonal prices may involve a higher price.*

TRAVEL PROTECTION PLAN

We offer guests the opportunity to purchase a Travel Protection Plan. Please contact us for details.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

Air or other travel arrangements to and from your tour are not included in the price of your trip. We encourage you to contact your local travel agent, or Better Travel, a Vermont-based agency (800.331.6996 or bettertravel@madriver.com), for any additional air, hotel, rail, or transfer arrangements you may need.
