Travel Style

Our Self-Guided Walking Adventures are ideal for travelers with an independent spirit who enjoy exploring at their own pace. We provide authentic accommodations, luggage transfers, and some meals, along with comprehensive Route Notes, detailed maps, and 24-hour emergency assistance. This gives you the freedom to focus on the things that matter to you—no group, no guide, and no set schedule to stand in the way of enjoying your adventure, your way.

Overview

This self-guided walking tour combines the two most scenic regions of the Scottish Highlands. Beginning in Perthshire, at the foothills of the Highlands, you walk through an almost idyllic Scottish landscape of turreted castles framed by hills of purple heather, clear streams, deep, tree-lined lochs, and whisky distilleries. From the manicured Atholl Estate, a scenic transfer takes you to the Western Highlands, with wild landscapes of glens and open moorland with endless views, including Scotland's highest peak, Ben Nevis. Steeped in Scottish history, legendary routes pass near Birnam Wood from Shakespeare's Macbeth, the West Highland Way into Fort William, and to Bonnie Prince Charlie's safe havens. Accommodations are impeccable, inviting you to taste contemporary Scottish fare that starts with local produce, game, meat, and fish from the surrounding hills and waters, followed perhaps by the best single malt whisky.

Daily Itinerary

DAY 1

Arrival in Dunkeld. Fiddlers Path and Inver Path; 6 miles, easy, no significant elevation gain or loss

As you step off the train at the Dunkeld & Birnam station, you take in the crisp fresh air of the Highlands, with the wild mountains of Perthshire nearby. Following an orientation meeting, you check into your beautiful hotel, set on 280 acres, before departing for your walk. The well-maintained Dunkeld Path Network winds along the bank of the River Tay, Scotland's longest river, most famous for salmon fishing. A short ascent on the Inver Path leads to the manicured grounds of the Hermitage, with its impressive Douglas fir trees. The route continues to the edge of the early to mid-Victorian Highland resort of Birnam, home of the "Birnam Oak," considered the last remnant of the great Birnam Wood made famous in Shakespeare's Macbeth. You cross the Dunkeld Bridge linking the towns of Dunkeld and Birnam. The bridge was designed by Scottish engineer Thomas Telford and financed mainly by the 4th Duke of Atholl. Time permitting, you may peruse the artisan shops or admire the cathedral before strolling back to your hotel just outside of town.

Dunkeld House Hotel, Dunkeld

This beautiful property is set within 280 acres of pristine land on the bank of the River Tay, Scotland's premier salmon fishing river. Bright guest rooms combine contemporary furnishings with rich, warm accents. The oak-paneled bar with its grand piano and log fire is ideal for relaxing with an aperitif before dining on fine fare from locally sourced ingredients at the on-site restaurant overlooking the river. A heated indoor pool, sauna, gym, and spa treatments are available, and tennis, golf, fishing, or horseback riding can be arranged. Walks start at the hotel's front step, located just a mile outside of town.

DAY 2

Loch of the Lowes Path; 6.2 miles, easy to moderate, no significant elevation gain or loss, OR Birnam Hill Path, 8 miles, moderate to challenging, 1,000-ft. elevation gain and loss

Today offers several walk options right from the doorstep of your hotel. Our suggested route follows the now-familiar riverside path to Dunkeld. While the beginning and ending sections of the walk follow the quiet road past the Dunkeld Golf Club, the path soon leads to open country where great crested grebes, goldeneye ducks, and coots can be spotted. From this vantage point, you also enjoy views of the day's destination, the Loch of the Lowes Nature Reserve. Here, at the Scottish Wildlife Trust visitor center, you can observe live and recorded footage of a pair of breeding ospreys who call the reserve home. You retrace your steps and complete the loop back to the village where, time permitting, you may wish to visit the Beatrix Potter Exhibition and Garden located down the street from the Birnam train station. A moderate option is also available, culminating at the King's Seat viewpoint on Birnam Hill.

Dunkeld House Hotel, Dunkeld

Transfer to Killiecrankie. Killiecrankie to Pitlochry via Bealach route and Moulin; 6.2 miles, moderate, 1,400-ft. elevation gain and loss or Killiecrankie loop via River Garry and Loch Faskally; 9.4 miles, easy to moderate, no significant elevation gain and loss

Today you transfer to Killiecrankie and your home for the next two nights, a small hotel nestled in forest and rose gardens. Today's route starts with a gradual uphill section (approximately two hours) through fields of heather, offering some of the best views in Scotland. Before reaching the Bealach Pass, there is a challenging option (two miles round-trip) all the way to the summit of Ben Vrackie, at 2,760 feet. The path then descends to the town of Moulin with its 1965 brewery (which won the Scottish Pub of the Year award twice), where you may stop to refuel with a hearty lunch and a pint of Braveheart. There are several easy walk options through fields and woodlands, including one past the Edradour Distillery, the smallest in Scotland. You may spend a leisurely afternoon in Pitlochry and return by taxi (at your own expense). A longer, but easier option is to walk the Killiecrankie loop following a tranquil route alongside Loch Faskally and the River Garry, ideal for bird watching and plant identification.

The Killiecrankie Hotel

An intimate award-winning hotel and restaurant overlooking the Pass of Killiecrankie—the deep gorge of the River Garry. Recently refurbished elegant guest rooms are individually decorated with rich colors, fabrics, and fresh flowers. The fine-dining restaurant serves exceptional cuisine, and the cozy wood-paneled bar is a magnet for guests and locals. An inviting living room has a fireplace for cool weather or opens to manicured gardens and patio in warmer days. Surrounded by expansive lawns and woodlands, the hotel is just three miles from the Highland Victorian town of Pitlochry.

DAY 4

Killiecrankie to Blair Atholl via River Garry and Blair Atholl back to Killiecrankie via Atholl Estates; 10.2 miles, easy to moderate, 950-ft. elevation gain and loss. Blair Castle Discovery

After a full Scottish breakfast, you head out on a gentle path following the River Garry, leading to the Atholl Estates and Blair Castle. The ancient seat of the Dukes and Earls of Atholl, Blair Castle presides over the heart of Highland Perthshire. Dating from the 13th century, Blair Castle's history extends over some 740 years, and it is still home to Europe's last private army, the Atholl Highlanders. You join a guided tour of the castle, a fascinating historical introduction, before enjoying a picnic or lunch at the local tearoom, a working 1590 water mill known for outstanding homemade soups and scones. The return to your cozy home offers some beautiful open vistas.

The Killiecrankie Hotel, Killiecrankie

DAY 5

Transfer to Fort William. Great Glen Way from Gairloch to Fort William; 10 miles, easy, no elevation gain or loss

Following breakfast, you depart Killiecrankie to make the stunning voyage (approximately two hours by car) west to Fort William. Today's walking route is on the final section of the Great Glen Way toward Fort William. You walk near Old Inverloch Castle, with beautiful views of Ben Nevis, and along the Caledonian Canal, with its "Pepper Pot" lighthouse and Neptune's Staircase—an impressive series of eight locks raising the canal by 50 feet. The largest town in the western Highlands, Fort William is picturesquely located on the shores of Loch Linnhe and is named after its original settlement around the fort, constructed to control the local population after Oliver Cromwell's invasion of Scotland during the English Civil War. You may want to stop at the West Highland Museum, which has an interesting exhibit.

Nevis Bank Inn, Fort William

A modern inn on the banks of the River Nevis and a 10-min. walk from the center of Fort William. Spacious rooms are stylishly decorated with wooden furniture and luxurious fabrics. Browns Bar and Restaurant combines dark wood accents, oak floors, and large windows in a contemporary style, serving a wide selection of pasta, meat, and seafood.

DAY 6

Cow Hill Circuit; 6.4 miles, easy to moderate, 1,000-ft. elevation gain and loss or train to Mallaig (non-walking option; at your own expense)

A wonderful loop walk departs Fort William for the top of Cow Hill, with superb views of the surrounding area. Or you may choose to take a train-ride excursion along the West Highland Railway through some of Scotland's most atmospheric scenery (at your own expense; advance reservation highly recommended; please visit westcoastrailways.co.uk). The two-hour train ride to Mallaig crosses the famous 21-arched Glen Finnan viaduct (featured in the Harry Potter movies) and stops at the poignant Glen Finnan monument at the head of Loch Shiel that was erected in honor of the clansmen behind Bonnie Prince Charlie's attempt to gain the British throne in 1745. The end point, the town of Mallaig, is a thriving fishing community and one of the gateways to the islands of the Inner Hebrides. You can see the jagged peaks of the Isle of Skye just a few miles away across the Sound of Sleat. Mallaig is a good place to have lunch, with many seafood restaurants.

DAY 7

Departure from Fort William

You depart at your leisure after breakfast.

ITINERARY CHANGES

Please bear in mind that this is a typical itinerary, and the actual activities, sites, and accommodations may vary due to season, special events, weather, or transportation schedules. We reserve the right to alter the itinerary, since tour arrangements are made up to a year in advance and unforeseen circumstances may arise that mandate change. Itinerary changes are made to improve the tour and your experience.

EDINBURGH'S INTERNATIONAL FESTIVALS

Cultural activity in Edinburgh reaches its peak during the month of August. All art forms are presented during the prestigious Edinburgh International Festival. In 2018, this festival will occur from August 3–27. Please visit the following website for information: eif.co.uk. There is also the annual Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo—this performance by the British Armed Forces, Commonwealth, and International military bands and display teams on the esplanade of Edinburgh Castle is rich in tradition and pageantry. Information on the Tattoo can be found at edintattoo.co.uk. The official dates of the Tattoo in 2018 are August 3–25. Due to the popularity of the festivals, it is recommended that you make travel arrangements, including hotel reservations, as far in advance as possible.

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

Country Walkers is a leader in active travel with responsible tourism an integral part of our core values. Our tours reflect our dedication to best travel practices—and to the preservation of indigenous cultures and the environment. Country Walkers has made a donation on behalf of every traveler to the CW Travelers Fund, which supports designated projects in the communities and habitats in which we travel. We invite you to learn more about our efforts and initiatives for giving back.

ACTIVITY LEVEL

This tour is one of our Self-Guided Walking Adventures, rated easy to moderate, with an average of 5-11 miles per day, with options on some days. The terrain is sometimes gentle but also includes sustained ascents and descents on most days. Walks are on well-maintained trails combining wide paths, some of which are paved, with single-track packed dirt or grassy tracks, with roots, gravel, and loose stones at times. The trails above tree line may feel more challenging than the terrain suggests because they are exposed to the elements. The walking routes are through woodlands or framed by heather, and offer dramatic views of typical Highland scenery.

INCLUSIONS

- » Breakfast daily, one lunch (day 5), and four dinners (days 1, 3, 4, and 5); beverages not included
- » All accommodations while on tour
- » Local transfers as noted in the itinerary

GRATUITIES

Standard gratuities for all hotels, meals, and services that are included in your tour price will be paid by Country Walkers; however additional tips are always welcome. Should you wish to tip for meals or services not included in the cost of the tour, please do so at your discretion. Local currency is preferred.

Traveling To and From Your Tour

STARTING POINT

Dunkeld & Birnam Train Station, Dunkeld, Scotland

Based upon individual arrival times

A tour representative will meet you at the Dunkeld & Birnam train station in Dunkeld (holding a sign with Country Walkers and/or your name on it) and take you for a hot drink and orientation meeting at a local café before delivering you to the Dunkeld House Hotel.

In order to arrange your arrival transfer and orientation meeting, please provide us with your arrival and departure details by returning your Guest Information Form at least 45 days prior to the departure.

Please note that the tour price includes one arrival transfer and orientation meeting on Day 1 of the tour. If traveling in a group of two or more with separate arrival times, additional charges will apply for multiple transfers and orientation meetings.

You may check into the hotel at any time of day on the first day of the tour (if you arrive prior to the hotel's check-in time of 3:00 p.m., and your room is not yet ready, you may store your luggage at reception and set out on your walk).

GETTING TO THE STARTING POINT

The most convenient way to travel to Dunkeld is by train.

From Edinburgh: there are direct trains several times per day from Edinburgh Haymarket train station, which is located slightly out of the city center. The journey to the Dunkeld & Birnam station takes 1½ hours. Or you may depart from Edinburgh Waverley train station, which is more central; the two-hour journey requires one change.

From the Edinburgh Airport to Haymarket or Waverley train station, you may take a taxi (20 minutes) or the Airlink bus service that departs the airport every 10 minutes (30 minutes). Tickets can be purchased at the Airlink kiosk just outside the Arrivals Hall. For more information about schedules, please visit flybybus.com.

From Glasgow: there are direct trains several times per day from Glasgow Queen Street train station, located in the city center. The journey to the Dunkeld & Birnam station takes 1½ hours.

From the Glasgow Airport to Glasgow Queen Street train station, you may take a taxi (15 minutes) or the First 500 Glasgow Shuttle that departs the airport every 10 minutes (20 minutes). Tickets can be purchased online or onboard from the driver. For more information about schedules or to pre-purchase tickets, please visit firstgroup.com/ukbus/glasgow/journey_planning/glasgow_shuttle/.

For further rail information, including reservations, schedules, and up-to-date fares, please call Rail Europe at 877.257.2887 or consult their website:

raileurope.com. Or you may consult the Scottish rail website: scotrail.co.uk.

We recommend making train reservations in advance for major train routes.

PRE- AND POST-TOUR ACCOMMODATIONS

We suggest arriving in Scotland at least one day prior to the tour start date. This will give you time to rest after your travels and recover from any effects of jet lag.

In Edinburgh: we recommend staying at the B+B Edinburgh, a 10-minute walk or a 5-minute taxi ride from Haymarket Train Station. Please note that due to the Edinburgh Festival and the Edinburgh Tattoo, hotels fill extremely quickly during the month of August; we suggest making your pre-tour reservation as early as possible. Please contact the hotel directly to make a reservation.

Information & Policies

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES

Country Walkers guarantees the departure of every tour*, which guarantees peace of mind for every guest. From the moment your reservation is confirmed, you can start preparing for your adventure. We take care of all the details to ensure a seamless, Self-Guided experience. For best availability, reserve your trip early.

except in cases of force majeure*

RESERVATIONS

If you have not already gone through our reservations process, please note that the method by which Self-Guided Adventures are reserved differs in important ways from typical scheduled tours. We encourage all guests to refrain from purchasing plane tickets or making contingent plans until they receive confirmation from us. Here's how the process works:

1. Reservation Request. The process begins when you make a reservation request for this tour, either online at countrywalkers.com or by calling Country Walkers at 800.464.9255. Please note the online form does not on its own constitute a final reservation or a guarantee of tour space. If you use the form, one of our Tour Consultants will call within one business day. Outside of 90 days prior to the tour start date, a $350 per person credit card authorization is required at the time of the reservation request. Within 90 days prior to the tour start date, your final tour cost, pre-authorized to your credit card, is required. If we are unable to accommodate you on your preferred dates/tour (or an alternative of your choice), this payment is fully refunded.
2. Reservation Request Receipt. Upon receipt of your deposit and preferred tour start dates, you will be provided with an emailed reservation request receipt, stating your reservation number and reconfirming the details of your reservation request (tour name, departure date, and tour price), while we get working on securing availability with all the hotels.
3. Confirmation. Our goal is to confirm your reservation request within five business days; however, this may take longer for a variety of reasons. All of our accommodations are available on a request basis; we do not hold blocks of rooms and, therefore, must confirm availability at the time of your request. If at all possible, we recommend you provide a range of back-up tour start dates at the time of your initial request. Once your reservation is confirmed, a Tour Consultant will contact you and your credit card will be automatically charged the $350 per person deposit (or full payment if within 90 days prior to your tour start date). Once you have received our official confirmation, you can make flight reservations.

4. Final Payment. Final tour payment is due 90 days prior to tour departure date. As pricing is determined over a year in advance, we may be forced to change our listed price over time. However, please note that once your reservation is confirmed, we will always honor the price quoted when you booked.

TOUR ACCOMMODATIONS

Hotel Availability: Since we typically use small, boutique properties for Self-Guided tours, securing availability can sometimes prove challenging, especially on short notice. (Again, we encourage guests to book early and be flexible.) On some tours, if our standard property is not available, we may have alternate hotels of equivalent quality that we have approved. We'll book one of these alternates if the standard property is not available. If the hotel or room type requires a surcharge, we will contact you prior to reserving it. We will not reserve non-approved properties.

Room Category: We typically book standard rooms. If you are interested in upgrading your room type, please contact a Tour Consultant. Please bear in mind that upgrades are not available at every hotel; surcharges will be determined once we know what's available. Triple rooms (or rooms with two beds) can be a rarity. Should you desire such an accommodation, we may need to offer two rooms—supplements may apply. Please allow us extra time to sort the options out.

ORIENTATION MEETING & TRANSFERS

Though Self-Guided tours are a predominantly private experience, there are occasions where you may be in contact with others. Because guests are allowed to pick their own start dates, there may be other Country Walkers travelers staying in the same properties as you or even starting on the same date. For this reason, we may need to combine your orientation meeting with that of other guests or ask you to share on-tour transfers. This does not mean you need to walk together.

GUEST RESPONSIBILITIES

Each guest has the responsibility to select a trip appropriate to his/her abilities and interests and to prepare for the trip by carefully reading the confirmation materials. To join this trip, you must be in good health and capable of completing activities as described in the day-to-day itinerary. Our in-house experts welcome the opportunity to discuss the tour in more detail. In order to meet your needs, we ask that you please share any relevant physical limitations or health conditions when you make your reservation.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Cancellations received 91 days or more prior to the tour start date will incur a loss of $150; cancellations received between 90 and 61 days prior to the tour start date incur a loss of 25 percent of the tour price; there are no refunds within 60 days of the tour start date. Up to 91 days prior to departure, you may transfer your reservation, depending on availability, from one departure to another in the same calendar year at no cost*. Cancellations must be made in writing. Please note that the tiered tour price is based on a guarantee of a specified number of guests—should your group decrease in size, we reserve the right to alter the per person price if necessary as reflected in the Tour Price table.

One transfer per year; afterwards a modest per person transfer fee will apply. Please note that tours with seasonal prices may involve a higher price.*

TRAVEL PROTECTION PLAN

We offer guests the opportunity to purchase a Travel Protection Plan. Please contact us for details.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

Air or other travel arrangements to and from your tour are not included in the price of your trip. We encourage you to contact your local travel agent, or Better Travel, a Vermont-based agency (800.331.6996 or bettertravel@madriver.com), for any additional air, hotel, rail, or transfer arrangements you may need.
